Treworgans Farm accessible accommodation

Buzzard Watch and Valley View are specially designed wheelchair accessible cottages. They are both fitted with a completely level access ensuite wet room to the main bedrooms and have adapted kitchens with sinks and hobs which have clear underspaces. There are numerous mobility aids which are available free of charge for guests to use including;

- 4 section electric profiling beds
- Electric rise recline chairs
- Both air and pressure mattresses
- Various wheeled shower chairs
- 160kg electric hoist
- Shower stool
- Toilet seat risers
- Easylever bed rail
- Portable alarm system
- Patient turners
- Monkey pole

Excellent, friendly care is available locally to suit your needs, and the local surgery can provide district nurses. Please ask for details.

There is a private patio area for each property which has seating and a BBQ. Parking is available with direct ramped access to the main entrances.

The farm is ideally positioned for touring the whole county and enjoying the vast choice of attractions Cornwall offers including:

- The Eden Project
- The Lost Gardens of Heligan
- The National Maritime Museum
- The Tate at St. Ives
- The City of Truro

all of which are all within easy reach of Treworgans Farm.

National Trust properties nearby include Trelissick Gardens, Trerice, Glendurgan and Lanhydrock.

A trip to either coastline is a short drive away so whether it is the rugged and wild North Coast or the sheltered, calmer bays of the South Coast you wish to explore the choice is yours.

“With all this variety, Cornwall is the perfect all year round holiday destination.”

The farm is situated mid-way between Probus and Ladock. Both of these villages have a Post Office, general store and pub. In addition to these there is a fish and chip shop, various restaurants, butcher and a petrol station in Probus.

There are churches in both villages and a Doctor’s surgery with dispensary in Probus.

“Our ultimate aim is to make your stay as enjoyable as possible. If you have any specific needs please feel free to give us a call and we will do all we can to meet them. This could be the first of many holidays on our delightful farm in this glorious county - come and see for yourself!”
