ACCESSIBLE HOLIDAY COTTAGES IN CORNWALL

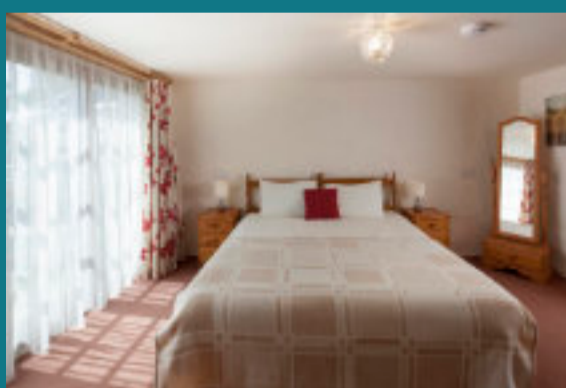

Following the recent Government announcement, we are pleased to confirm we are able to reopen our doors, and are looking forward to welcoming you to Treworgans from July 4th!

Cornwall is getting ready to welcome you all back; many attractions are open, and lots of the fantastic local eateries are opening their doors with beautiful new beer gardens, as well as continuing to offer varied takeaway menus to suit all tastes!

In preparation for reopening, we have added new equipment to our already extensive list, so we can now offer a tilting shower chair for our guests to use. We hope this will be a useful option for some of our guests.

Please do remember we have an excellent local care agency who are familiar with both cottages and equipment, and have successfully supported many of our guests over the years.

We are also still offering a 15% discount on July 2020 holidays, with limited availability to make the

Looking forward to welcoming guests old and new throughout 2020, and 2021.

Best wishes,

David & Esme
